Mrs. John Callaghan,
Meadowvale.

8280,

At her home in Meadowvale, on Sunday, January 8th, there passed away into that sleep that knows no waking a loved and loving wife and mother, in the person of Mrs. John Callaghan. The deceased was in her fifty-third year, and was the only surviving daughter of the late D. Maddigan, of Toronto Gore. Her marriage to John Callaghan was blessed with a family of two sons and six daughters, all of whom she had the comfort and consolation of having with her during her last few weeks on earth. "His will was done," and she passed peacefully away, fortified by the rites of Holy Mother Church. The funeral took place Wednesday morning to the R. C. cemetery at Wildfield, Toronto Gore, and was largely attended. Requiem High Mass was celebrated, special music being provided for the occasion. The pastor, Rev. Father Kiernan, preached a short but impressive funeral sermon from the text: "Blessed are the dead who die in the Lord," etc. He referred to the deceased as an exemplary Catholic, and model wife and mother, and spoke of her lifelong sterling qualities and charity. He extended to the bereft husband, children, and friends his deepest sympathy.

The remains were then taken to the cemetery, and buried beside those of her father and mother, in the shadow of the Church she loved. Communicated.

CALLANAN

John Callanan migrated from Ireland with his wife, Johanna Quillian in 1862. They rented a farm at Streetsville opposite the R.C. Church consisting of 117 acres of cleared land. It is said there wasn't enough timber standing for firewood. Staying there until 1871, they decided to make a move. Purchasing the whole of Lot 10 on Range 1 Toronto S.D.S. The former owner was Wm. Daniels.

There was a great deal of work to be done on this property, although there was a fine, large house already built.

John and Johanna were of the Roman Catholic faith, they lived on the farm until their death.
